Chasing Water is the London launch and exhibition of ETH Zurich's DELUS – Journal for Landscape and Urban Studies. It emerges from the first issue of DELUS, exploring the role of water in shaping and sustaining landscapes and urban environments. Projecting journal contributions into the gallery space, the exhibition invites visitors to immerse themselves in the myriad ways in which water makes and unmakes territories, is sensed through bodies, and is channelled through pipes and reservoirs.

Chasing Water is curated by the co-founding editors of DELUS, Dr. ir. Sara Frikech and Dr. Johanna Just, together with Kirsty Badenoch.

Contributions from: Yumna Al-Arashi, Stefan Breit, Linda Schilling Cuellar, Akshar Gajjar, Bhavya Jain, Oskar Frederick Johanson, Dr. Stavroula Michael, Valentina Noce, Dr. Elanz Najar Najafi, Dr. Negar Sanaan Bensi, Federica Pessotto, Lucia Rebolino, Mathilde Redouté, Insa Jelena Streit.

Produced with the support of the Institute of Landscape and Urban Studies, ETH Zürich and NSL – Netzwerk Stadt und Landschaft.

Exhibition design by DELUS. Visuals courtesy of the contributors.

DELUS is designed by Studio Folder and published by Hatje Cantz.
